The Advance over the Upper Potomac—Fall of Col. Baker.

The engagement near Leesburg was not renewed yesterday. Everything remained quiet in the camps of Gen. Banks and Gen. Stone down to nine o'clock last night. No new movement or operations took place yesterday on the part of our troops, and none, so far as is known here, on the part of the Confederate forces.

Of what occurred on Monday we stated the principal facts yesterday, and now add some further particulars.

Gen. Stone crossed the Potomac with one portion of his command at Edward's Ferry and another at Harrison's Island. The object of this movement was to secure the command of the Virginia shore, that his own and Gen. Bank's divisions might be safely transferred to the Virginia side of the river.

Gen. Stone, after crossing his advance, sent out Col. Baker, with portions of three regiments—his own, the Massachusetts Fifteenth, and the New York Tammany Regiment, numbering in all about eighteen hundred men, forming the right wing of Gen. Stone's command—to reconnoitre in force in the direction of Leesburg.

Both his wings—his right and left—were attacked as early as 9 o'clock A. M., but they repulsed the enemy wherever he appeared.

But at about 5 p. m., the right wing found itself confronted by near four thousand of the enemy under General Evans, with artillery. Evans attacked Baker's command in front and on both flanks. Baker gallantly essayed a charge, in making which he was killed, and his command suffered considerable loss. The officer left in command of it by his death then very properly gave the order to fall back to a position near the river bank, where he could be supported by Gen. Stone and the other portion of his army which had by that time effected a crossing of the river. This command was obeyed in good order, our troops bringing off with them all their wounded and dead.

On reaching the position selected the right wing turned, and both wings held their own upon it, though under the fire of the enemy, which gradually slackened until midnight, by which time it ceased; having for some hours previously become little more than picket firing.

Throughout the night the remainder of General Stone's force crossed the river and threw up temporary works that rendered his position secure, and enabled him to command the crossing of the river.

In the mean time Gen. Bank's division arrived at the Maryland landing of Edward's Ferry, and commenced crossing early yesterday morning.

Both divisions are now in position on the Virginia side of the river—that being the subject of their movement—and Gen. Banks has assumed the command.

The total loss of Gen. Stone, in the battle of Monday, including killed, wounded, and missing, is about two hundred. Col. Baker, of the California Regiment, as stated yesterday, was killed. Col. Cogswell, the commander of the New York Tammany Regiment, (Capt. Cogswell of 8th Infantry United States Army,) is among the missing—He is believed to be wounded and a prisoner. Lieut. Col. Ward, of the Massachusetts Fifteenth, was wounded—losing a leg.

Passengers who left Harper's Ferry on Monday report everything quiet there and at the Point of Rocks. There had been no firing since Friday.

How to Trap a Runaway Debtor.—Strange stratagems are often resorted to by creditors in pursuit of runaway debtors. At a meeting in Leeds of a society for the protection of trade, one of the speakers related an instance in point. A poor fellow arrived in Liverpool from the West Riding, in pursuit of a fugitive who had carried away £300 of his money. He applied to an attorney, to the magistrates, and to the chief of police in vain. Turning sorrowfully away, a police officer offered him a bit of advice. "Go you to the ship's side to-morrow at ten o'clock—the vessel sails at twelve—and ask your debtor ashore civilly. Will he come, do you think?" "Oh, yes, he will come, for he says I cannot touch him." "Well, that's all right. Ask him to come to you on the quay. As soon as he comes knock him down. I'll be close at hand and take you both into custody for a breach of the peace. You will get to the police office just as the magistrates are gone. The next day is Sunday; and he will have to stop till Monday. You'll have time then to force him to give up your money." The man took the policeman's advice, knocked the runaway rogue down, both were taken to the station-house, and the fellow in the end was glad to disgorge the £300.—Newport Gazette.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY

No flag but the Old Flag—the Red, White and Blue
With the stars of a Union unbroken and true
Arise and defend it! ye sons of the brave
Whose blood bought the banner your valor must save

TUESDAY MORNING NOV. 26 1861.

☞ Some interesting articles will be found on the first and last pages of this paper.

The Secessionists of Oregon

The Secessionists of California, at the recent election there, proved themselves to be in a very small minority. They had determined, if they could carry the election to force that State, out of the Union, and hence it is, that on their failure to do this, many of the leaders of the secession party are leaving the State by way of the route across the continent, and by steamers, to throw their power and influence in the civil war in behalf of the rebels.

Those of the secession leaders remaining in California, are seeking to build up a party there under the name of Democracy. The position of these leaders is precisely the same as that of the secession leaders in Oregon, and an article on this subject which we find in the Alta, exactly applies to the same class of men here.

The Secessionists of Oregon have two herculean tasks to perform; first, to steal and carry off the word "Democracy," and secondly, to keep up a fellowship with the Democracy of the Northern States. They would have no difficulty in obtaining a recognition from the democracy of the rebels, with whom they agree in their political doctrines, as well as their sympathies, but yet they would prefer to find companions among loyal citizens. To convey the impression to the ignorant that their party holds the same position with the Democracy of the Northern States, the secession organs have been quoting from the Dayton Empire, New York Day Book and McMaster's Journal, which gives as fair a representation of the views of the Northern Democracy as Wm. Lloyd Garrison's paper does of the Republican party. One of the tricks of this sort is perpetrated by the Portland Advertiser and other secession papers of Oregon. They all say, in substance:

"Though defeated, the noble democracy of Ohio are unconquered. Thousands of the members of that noble party were in the field fighting the battles of their country, in the producing of which they took no part and are in no way responsible. Had they been at home the result might have been different."

What claim has the Portland Advertiser and its party to claim fellowship with men who are fighting the battles of their country? Does not the secession party in Oregon hate the administration, the army and every body engaged in the war? Have not their newspaper organs done their utmost to bring the Government into discredit?—Have they not done their utmost to excite discontent. Do the members of the party rejoice at our successes and grieve at our disasters? It is notorious that all those questions must be answered in the negative. Is it not then a piece of sublime impudence in these Oregon secessionists to claim fellowship with the "noble democracy of Ohio," which has thousands of voters among the volunteers?

The New York [illegible] speaking of the Ohio election, says—

"Ohio elected a Union War State Ticket by some 50,000 majority—David Tod (democrat) Governor. It is but justice to his democratic opponent, H. J. Jewett, to say that he also declared himself for a vigorous prosecution of the war. The new legislature will of course be strongly 'Union,' though pretty equally divided as to political antecedents."

The time may come when the secessionists of Oregon will try to obtain recognition in some national convention of the democratic party, but we much doubt if they will ever succeed. The "noble Democracy" of the North recognizes the existence of "the United States of America," and are now ready to fight for it, and while they may desire peace, as all do, they do so not because of any sympathy with traitors. They do not boast that the palmetto is their flag, or drink the health of Beauregard over the Manassas defeat. The Bull Run secessionists in Oregon need not congratulate themselves about the firmness of "the noble democracy of Ohio;" they do not belong to the same party at all; one goes for "our country," and the other notwithstanding all its pretences, does all it can to benefit the rebels in arms against the government.

☞ The Oregonian of last Wednesday contains an article in the editorial columns headed "Next June Election," [illegible] very small * The article, although purporting to have come from the sunny South, was no doubt written not a hundred miles south of this. It smells of printer's ink and has the ear marks of an old stager in politics. The main drift of the article is that there is great danger that the Douglas democracy of this State will be induced to join Jo Lane's secession party, thinking it to be a Democratic party because the Advertiser and Slater's Union call it such, and calls loudly for Union conventions all over the State, to get democrats so committed to a Union party that they cannot be enticed into the secession party. We consider the imputation a slander upon the Union democracy and it does great injustice to their intelligence and patriotism.—This writer is not one of the fixed stars, neither do we think he is a * of very great magnitude.

The above article is taken from the Oregon City Argus of Saturday. The comments upon our correspondent's article would have had more force if they had been less rude.—The article in question was written by a gentleman residing in the Southern part of the State—was the result of his convictions of the proper policy, in the present exigencies of the country, for the republican party, to pursue in Oregon. We can say besides that the writer has no private ends to accomplish; he is not and will not be a seeker of office; his objects are only to advance the best interests of the people of Oregon. He feels that there is an important election in prospect, and that the government will not regard him guiltless who favors any plan which may throw this State into the hands of the Disunion party. He thought he had a right to be heard, and his suggestions, given in honesty, should be treated with fairness.

James Buchanan.

"This is the moment for action, for prompt, energetic, united action, and not for the discussion of peace propositions. These we must know, would be rejected by the States that have seceded unless we should offer to recognize their independence, which, is entirely out of the question."

We find the above in a recently published letter written by James Buchanan. This same man one year ago was President of the United States. While in that office, in a message to Congress, he made an argument, to the effect that there was no warrant in our constitution for coercing the rebel States, or as he now terms it "prompt, energetic and decided action." He has now changed his views. Pity he had not used his position to put down the rebellion when it was within his power. Instead of that he kept traitors in his cabinet, well knowing they were doing all they could to break up the government and render the rebellion successful. Poor old man! What crimes and sorrow, have been and will be the result of your weakness and wickedness!

Gov. Curry insists that the Advertiser is a "reliable democratic paper." In his estimation a "reliable democrat" is one who drinks the health of Beauregard, and professes to be anxious to fight for Jeff Davis. Union loving people understand democracy to be a different thing—a devotion to the Union and a determination to sustain it. The Advertiser holds precisely the same position in the free States, as the Boston Liberator does in the slave States. The first preaches treason against the Government here, and the last treason against the Government in the South. While the Liberator is properly excluded from the mails in the South, the Advertiser should be excluded from the mails in the North. Par nobile fratrem.

The Advertiser says that the rebellion of the South was caused by the abolitionists.—That is intended for the Lane sucklings.—Rhett, of South Carolina, in the secession convention of that State, said—"Gentlemen you may talk about slavery being the cause of this secession movement but don't put it into the documents that are to live in history. It is simply a plan formed twenty five years ago." Who shall we believe—Rhett or Curry?

The army of Austria consists of a grand total of 738,344 men and 1,088 guns; that of Prussia contains 719,092 men, and 1,444 guns; the army of Russia, about 850,000 men, and 1,160 guns; the army of France, 626,482 men; and that of Great Britain, in all parts of the world, 534,527 men.

From the California Golden Era

The March of Victory Begun

As we have predicted from the commencement of hostilities that for various and cogent reasons, Government would abstain from pushing the offensive vigorously until late in the fall, and that when its full powers were once brought into requisition, there would be no question of victory, so it see[illegible] ly likely to pr[illegible] the last few we[illegible] tern [illegible]

The policy of th[illegible] contin[illegible] we perfected on[illegible] effective and [illegible] been superseded [illegible] ular one of [illegible] Government [illegible] jugation [illegible] powers, and [illegible] do or die the [illegible] Washington [illegible] son of the se[illegible] circle of actio[illegible] be restricted [illegible] and then the c[illegible] fall upon one of [illegible] ever enacted.

That the North [illegible] be amicably united [illegible] gue; but that the terms [illegible] are in the future to exist [illegible] sections, will be at the dictation o[illegible] al Government, we hold to be self evident, and the sooner the South awakens to this foregone conclusion—a conclusion that begins to force itself upon every intelligent mind irrelative of bias—the better will it be for all concerned as affecting both foreign and domestic relations. Resistance can only delay amid augmenting distress and confusion the triumphant finale that awaits the Union armies. Spring at the farthest will suffice to dissipate the wild dream of usurpation and seal its supporters to ignominy forever. It will also suffice to teach the world the reality and steadfastness of a Government founded on the will of the governed, and pinnacled by the Liberty cap of universal freedom.

The existence of such a Government cannot be looked upon as an experiment of doubtful issue, but as a proven fact, as it emerges from the present struggle successfully—and that it will so emerge, every forward step now indicates, and every sane man cannot do otherwise than to desire and believe.

Flax cotton is already becoming an article of commerce. Considerable quantities of it are being prepared and find a ready market for various purposes, chiefly for mixture with cotton and wool. Although inferior to cotton for most purposes, it is equal to it for many and superior to it for some. It has fairly taken its place among the textile raw materials, and it will grow more important as the supply increases, as the processes for its preparation improve, and as the uses for it develop.

The San Francisco Mirror says of Governor Whiteaker's appointment of Senator Stark: "Stark is known to be a rabid Secessionist, and those who know him say that he is bitterly opposed to the Government. Secessionism in Oregon, which State has everything to gain by its connection with the Union, and nothing to make by separation, is a thing we cannot quite comprehend."

Does the Advertiser still hold to the doctrine that States have a right, at their pleasure to secede from the Union?

CITY.

CIRCUIT COURT.—State of Oregon vs. Edward Symonds.—Indictment for manslaughter. The whole of yesterday was taken up in the trial of the above case. The jury returned a verdict of not guilty.

PROSECUTING ATTORNEY.—On account of the illness of Mr. Page, Prosecuting Attorney, the Court yesterday appointed E. D. Shattuck, Esq., to act as such during the remainder of the term.

SET FOR TO-DAY.—The trial of Wm. Hoffer, indicted for the murder of a Mr. R[illegible], said to have been committed some eight years since, is set for to-day.

We understand that a paper closing business in this city on Thanksgiving Day has been signed by some fifty of our principal business men.

Some beautiful specimens of Japan goods are for sale at G. C. Robbins' Store.

The steamer Cortes sails to-day at noon, for San Francisco direct.

Governor Turney, of Washington Territory, has appointed Thursday next as a day of Thanksgiving and Prayer.

CIDER.—Mr. Geo. Fisher has put up a Cider Mill in Oregon City and is now making cider and shipping it to California. He pays twenty-five cents a bushel for apples, and will continue the manufacture as long as he can get them. So says the Argus. Sensible man, that Fisher.

Dr. Purdlow is not certain that he will take the Postoffice, at Oregon City.

A letter to the Argus says that Elk City has been nearly depopulated by the gold discoveries on Salmon river. Out of 800 or 1,000 miners on the South Fork, not more than 75 remained.

MORE DISCOVERIES.—It is stated by persons from above, that new gold diggings had been discovered some fifty miles this side of the Salmon river diggings, which are of "fabulous" richness.

R. H. Robb, from Rock Creek, says the mines have been "played out" there, and that no one will winter in the mines but the English Collector.

The revenue cutter on the Sound is now called Gen. Sumner.

More U. S. Dragoons arrived at Fort Vancouver per steamer Julia last night.

The Overland Press, published at Olympia, is agitating the division of Washington Territory by the Cascade Range.

It is said that the Confederate Ministers who have stolen off to Europe in the Nashville will propose to France and England to extend a "protectorate over the cotton States."

Thirty six female nurses, including nine Sisters of Mercy, left Chicago on the 17th October, for the army at Jefferson City.

Blessed is he who hath not, for he shall not lose it. A poor Frenchman, when his wife aroused him from his sleep with the cry, "Get up, Baptist, there is a robber in the house," answered sensibly, "Don't let us molest him. Let him explore the house, and if he should find anything of any value, we will take it away from him."

A "maiden lady," whose "school keepin'" and age had made fearful havoc with her beauty, said one evening to one of her little boarders, "Now, Johnny, you get to bed early and always do so, and you will be rosy-cheeked and handsome when you grow up." The little codger looked up quizzically into her wrinkled countenance and said, "Well, aunty, I guess you used to sit up late a good deal when you was young, didn't you?"

It is not the multitude of applauders, but the good sense of the applauder, which gives value to the reputation.

The last Paris novelty is the milkmaid petticoat—red, gray or white and worn over the dress. It's a very chaste thing.

There are many doublings in the human heart, don't think you can find out the whole of a man's character at once.

Of all diseases the first great cause
Springs from neglect of Nature's laws.

To the Afflicted

Sufferers! when a cure is guaranteed in all stages of secret disease—Self-Abuse, Nervous Debility, Syphilis in all its stages, Strictures, Gleet, Urinary Diabetes, diseases of the kidneys and Bladder, Mercurial Rheumatism, Scrofula, Pains in the Bones and Ankles, diseases of the Lungs, Throat, Nose and Eyes, Ulcers upon the Body or Limbs, Cancers, Dropsy, Epileptic Fits, St. Vitus Dance—and all diseases arising from a derangement of the sexual organs—such as Nervous Trembling, Loss of Memory, Loss of Power, General Weakness, Dimness of Vision with peculiar spots appearing before the eyes, Loss of Sight, Wakefulness, Dyspepsia, Liver Disease, Eruptions upon the Face, Pains in the Back and Head, Female Irregularities—and all improper discharges of both sexes. It matters not from what cause the disease originated, however long standing or obstinate the case, recovery is certain, and in a shorter time than a permanent cure can be effected by any other treatment, even after the disease has baffled the skill of eminent physicians and resisted all their means of cure. The medicines prescribed are pleasant, without odor, entirely vegetable, causing no sickness, and free from mercury or balsam. During fifteen years of practice in Europe, the Atlantic States and California, I have rescued from the jaws of death many thousands, who, in the last stages of the above-mentioned diseases, had been given up to die by their physicians, which warrants me in promising to the afflicted, who may place themselves under my care, a speedy and permanent cure. Private diseases are the greatest enemies to health, as they are the first cause of consumption, scrofula, and many other diseases, and should be a terror to the human family. A permanent cure is scarcely ever effected—a majority of cases falling into the hands of incompetent persons, who not only fail to cure the disease, but ruin the constitution, filling the system with mercury, which with the disease, hastens the sufferer into a rapid consumption. But should the disease and the treatment not cause death speedily and the victim marries, the disease is entailed upon the children, who are born with feeble constitutions, and the current of life corrupted by a virus which betrays itself in scrofula, tetter, ulcers, eruptions and other affections of

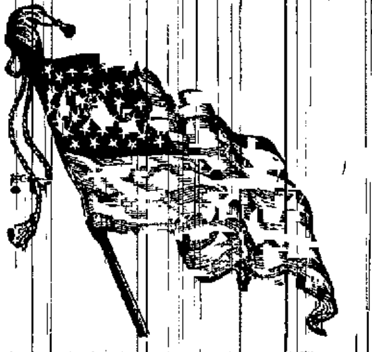
OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY.



No flag but the Old Flag—the Red White and Blue
With the stars of a Union unbroken and true!
Arise and defend it ! ye sons of the brave
Whose blood bought the banner your valor must save

WEDNESDAY MORNING, NOV. 27, 1861

☞ Some interesting articles will be found on the first and last pages of this paper

Secessionists vs. Thomas Jefferson.

The Advertiser denounces the calling out of troops by President Lincoln to protect the capital and the government, and the suspension of the habeas corpus act, by which traitors could be set at liberty, as violations of the constitution, for which he should be punished; and calls upon its friends "to stand by the Constitution and Laws." The Advertiser well knows that if these measures, to which he strenuously objects, had not been stopped by the Government we should now be, as Senator Stark says we are, "without a government" That was unquestionably the desire of the Advertiser, as well as of his writing partner, Benjamin Stark.

Union men have reason to rejoice that the government did not take counsel from traitors; and that by an energy, wonderful under the circumstances, troops were called out, traitors arrested in their crimes, and the government and Union saved. The American people will never have cause to thank the secessionists of Oregon, or elsewhere, for the preservation of our government.

In an emergency like the present, which Thomas Jefferson supposed might arise, while in retirement at Monticello, September 20, 1810, he thus wrote

"A strict observance of the written laws is doubtless one of the highest duties of a good citizen, but it is not the highest The laws of necessity, of self-preservation, of saving our country when in danger, are of higher obligation. To lose our country by a scrupulous adherence to written law, would be to lose the law itself, with life, liberty, property and all those who are enjoying them with us; thus absurdly sacrificing the end to the means."

These were the opinions of Thomas Jefferson. There never lived a statesman who was more regardful of the constitution and the liberties of the people than this illustrious citizen. He said what he would do to save the country when in danger.

But who believes that Gov Curry, Benjamin Stark or Joe Lane wished to "save the country?" Gov. Curry recommended prayers for its downfall. Ben'. Stark declared that we had no government. Joe Lane avowed that his mission to Oregon was to extend the Confederate government over us.

We ask pardon for introducing these names with that of Thomas Jefferson

It is well understood that Gwin was privy to the plot, happily thwarted by Gen Sumner, to plunge California into rebellion. In arresting him, Gen. Summer performed a good deed. His arrest caused no dissatisfaction except among disunion men, and they have prudence enough to keep mum

The San Francisco Herald—a democratic paper—manfully sustains the Government. It says that "the back-bone of the rebellion has been completely broken," and urges men of means in California, to take as they are able, the government loan—as the safest and most profitable of securities

Federal Finances—These seem to be all right. The second fifty millions were taken by the banks Ten millions of the national loan was taken in Baltimore. There must be some union feeling there

Our assinine neighbor on yesterday morning, notwithstanding his promises to be quiet, raised an unusual bray. You can always bring this noise out of him by touching him up in the right spot.

The Steilacoom Herald says that the Advertiser is incapable of doing any harm, and on that ground its circulation should not be interfered with. There is a good deal of [illegible] in this argument

"Washington and the Convention of 1787 on Secession."

Washington, in his letter to the President of Congress September 17th, 1787, when, as President of the Convention he presented officially to Congress the Constitution as passed in Convention, says

"It is obviously impracticable in the Federal Government of these States to secure all rights of independent sovereignty to each and yet provide for the interests and safety of all Individuals entering into society must give up a share of liberty to preserve the rest." * * * * "It is at all times difficult to draw with precision the line between those rights which must be surrendered and those which must be reserved" * * * * "In all our deliberations on this subject we kept steadily in our view that which appears to us the greatest interest to every true American, the consolidation of our Union in which is involved our prosperity, felicity, safety, and perhaps our national existence "

It is a significant fact that the letter from which this is a pregnant extract was prepared and submitted by Washington (before it was sent to Congress) for the approval of the Convention, and was approved by them unanimously, paragraph by paragraph."

Here we have at least the opinion of the Convention and of Washington that, by the Constitution, the sovereignty of the individual States is a circumscribed sovereignty, and that the original sovereignty of the individual State, which, from the nature of the case, included the control and enjoyment of all rights of independence, was now obviously impracticable as co existent with that Federal sovereignty which had just been formed, and which provided for the interest and safety of all,

And again The letter speaks of "rights surrendered" as well as rights reserved If surrendered, then clearly they cannot belong to the party that has yielded them up, nor be resumed without the assent of the party to whom they have been surrendered

But again The great paramount object of the Constitution is distinctly brought out, to wit, the "consolidation of the Union" A supreme power was created by the imparting of the sovereign power mutually surrendered by all the sovereigns for that very purpose.—It is declared in their view "the greatest interest of every true American "

How is it possible to deduce from this document the doctrine of "secession?" The consolidation which they had inaugurated and established was, in their opinion, an essential, paramount object, "involving the prosperity, felicity, safety, and perhaps the national existence," the welfare of the whole country.—What room here for the remotest suggestion of such a neutralizing idea as secession?—The very word is antagonistic to the whole object of their labors. Their object was union; secession is of necessity disunion.—Secession, then, as a great political heresy, it cannot be defended "EIGHTY-SEVEN."

Thanksgiving in Washington Territory.—Acting-Governor Turney has issued his proclamation inviting the people of the territory to set apart the 28th day of November, for a day of thanksgiving, praise and prayer He says—Although arch Traitors have, during the past year, committed many acts of treason against the Constitution and Government of the United States, the best Government under God's Providence, ever made by man—yet, having been peculiarly blessed with good health, the Earth having yielded abundantly, and our every want having been supplied; and God in his great wisdom and mercy having inclined the hearts and minds of all the good citizens of the United States to defend the Government, transmitted to us in its purity by our fathers.

Therefore, that we, the loyal citizens of the Territory of Washington, may join with such citizens throughout the Union, in thanks to Almighty God for life, and health, and friends—for the blessings of civil and religious liberty, and the love of country—and that our united prayers may ascend to Him for the success of our National armies, and the safety of the men engaged in fighting the nation's battles—and that the unholy rebellion, now being waged against our free institutions, may be speedily put down, and our glorious Union, and the liberties of our people preserved forever!

Gov Turney proposes that the day shall be observed by loyal people It would be funny if we should have a proclamation from Gov Whiteaker appointing a thanksgiving for the other side. Gov. Curry's prayer would be very appropriate under such an arrangement

Union Sentiments South—The [illegible] Monroe correspondent of the New York Tribune, insists that there is a strong Union sentiment South, and as an illustration says

"Of the existence in Norfolk not only of the Union sentiment but of a Union [illegible], I have indisputable proof. [illegible] American flag, the true Stars and Stripes [illegible] allowed to kiss the breeze and [illegible] hundreds to rest on [illegible]. [illegible] that city is an association of [illegible] hearted young men, and so numerous [illegible] that has the association become that [illegible] not [illegible] a revolution. There are hundreds of Union men in the rebel army and [illegible] hundreds of citizens dare not [illegible] them shout for the rebellion when they [illegible] in their hearts. Of this state of things [illegible] Norfolk there is no doubt [illegible] resident there would scarcely find it [illegible] It is fair to argue the same thing in other places."

Prosperity in Spite of the War—A New York paper says

One of the strongest arguments of opposition to American credit abroad rests upon the statement that our trade has fallen away to nothing since the war began In proof of this, the London Times refers to the decline of our importation of foreign goods. This is probably the first time in history that a nation's commercial activity was gauged exclusively by its consumption of foreign products. The usual test of the prosperity of the country is considered is the amount of its exports and of its production. If this test be applied to the United States we shall find that the country is really more prosperous now than it was a year ago Our exports from this port are heavier than they ever were before; as compared with last year they show an increase of nearly [illegible] per cent., and as compared with the year 1859 an increase of about 96 per cent. The production of the United States during the year 1861, has been a full average, notwithstanding the decreased production of cotton tobacco rice, hemp, etc, in the States convulsed by the rebellion All accounts from the West concur in stating that there never was so heavy a yield of corn and wheat as this season The weather has been eminently favorable for agricultural operations and the war has not interfered with them any where The West has to-day more grain, of various kinds, to send to market than it ever had before. But this is not all. Not only has the country produced and exported more during this year of war than it did before but our internal trade has been far more active than is generally supposed.

Thanksgiving Day—Governor Downey has appointed Thursday, the 28th of November, as a day of public Thanksgiving. The following is the proclamation:

Now, therefore, I, John G. Downey, Governor of the State of California, do hereby appoint and set apart Thursday, the 28th of November, inst ant, as a day of Public Thanksgiving to Almighty God, for the distinguished mercies and blessings bestowed upon us during the past year And I call upon all the people to lay aside their avocations, and meet in their accustomed religious assemblies, and in all suitable ways, and in all due solemnity, to pour forth their gratitude to God in prayer and praise of our Heavenly Father for His goodness remembering, at the same time to supplicate fervently for the speedy removal of our national calamities, and for the perpetuity in all its power and glory, of this Union and equality of States, to which, under Providence we most cheerfully attribute the unparalleled prosperity of our people, and to the existence of which, in its purity and justice, we look, as the main hope, the sheet anchor of civil and religious liberty to ourselves and our posterity.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand, and caused the great seal of the State to be affixed the day and year above written

JOHN G. DOWNEY.

Appearances Deceitful.

One who has implicit confidence in his own judgment, or even in his own observation, is quite certain to fall into some serious blunders in the course of his life. A correspondent of the American Agriculturist tells a good story, which has a fitting admonition for old as well as young persons:

When I was eleven years old, my mother removed to the country. Our nearest neighbor was a minister, by the name of Wayland, who, in addition to his ministerial duties, owned and cultivated a farm. One night my attention was attracted to a bright light in one of the upper rooms of our neighbor's house. In a moment I saw the wife fly past the uncurtained window, closely followed by the husband, who was armed with a huge fire-shovel—round the room she went, still pursued, and as I listened breathlessly, I thought, nay I was sure, I heard a scream.

I hastened to my mother and told her what I had seen, and we both looked out, but the light was gone, and all was quiet. Notwithstanding my mother's judicious warning, "to say nothing about it to any one," before school was out the next day, I had confided it to my bosom friend, and in a week half of the village knew it, and a great talk it made, I assure you.

Finally it reached the ears of the deacons, who at once proceeded to investigate its truth. My mother looked grave and troubled when they called, but conscious of having told only the truth, I met them fearlessly, and related what I had seen. Then they left, taking a "bee-line" for the minister's, to call him to account. With many apologies they made known their errand, when, to their surprise, the minister burst into a hearty laugh.

"Wait a moment," said he, "till I call Polly. You see, that night I found a big rat in the meal chest, and came down for the shovel, and bade her hold the light, while I killed him. Finding no other place to hide, the rascal took refuge in the folds of her dress, and she ran screaming till I managed to dislodge and kill him."

I have ever since been careful not to repeat an unfavorable report about my neighbors—at least until I know the whole truth.

Secessionists South.—The Visalia Delta, referring to the reports of there being Secessionists encamped on the Colorado river, and others on their way there, says:

We here have been picked at and rebuked by every sesesh paper in the State, for giving the same statement in substance; and while we know nothing personally, or otherwise than by report, about companies organizing anywhere, we do know and have known of men in small squads continually passing through this place, for two months past, "for Texas," as they said. That they were not going immediately "to Texas" was apparent enough from their equipment. Dan Showalter arrived in this place Wednesday last, accompanied by one Crowell, better known in Mariposa county as "Babe" who not long ago killed a man at Bear Valley, by the name of Reese. Another, or two other individuals were along. All left, Friday morning, for Texas.—Sac. Union.

DR. L. J. CZAPKAY'S

Private Medical & Surgical Institute,

SACRAMENTO STREET, BELOW MONTGOMERY.

Opposite Pacific Mail Steamship Company's Office, San Francisco.

ESTABLISHED IN 1854 FOR THE PERMANENT cure of all Chronic and Private Diseases, and the SUPPRESSION OF QUACKERY. Attending and Resident Physician, L. J. CZAPKAY, M. D., Late in the Hungarian Revolutionary War; Chief Physician to the 20th Regiment of Honveds; Chief Surgeon to the Military Hospital of Pesth, Hungary; late Lecturer on Diseases of the Urinary Organs and Diseases of Women and Children, and Honorary Member of the Philadelphia College of Medicine.

☞ Particular attention paid to the treatment of diseases peculiar to Women and Children.

Office Hours—From 9 A. M. to 9 P. M.

☞ Communications strictly confidential. Permanent cure guaranteed, or no pay. Consultations, by letter or otherwise, FREE.

Address, DR. L. J. CZAPKAY, San Francisco.

Of all diseases the first great cause,
Springs from neglect of Nature's laws.

To the Afflicted:

Suffer not when a cure is guaranteed in all stages of secret diseases—Self-Abuse, Nervous Debility, Syphilis in all its stages, Strictures, Gleet, Gravel, Diabetes, diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder, Mercurial Rheumatism, Scrofula, Pains in the Bones and Ankles, diseases of the Lungs, Throat, Nose and Eyes, Ulcers upon the Body or Limbs, Cancers, Dropsy, Epileptic Fits, St. Vitus Dance and all diseases arising from a derangement of the sexual organs, such as Nervous Trembling, Loss of Memory, Loss of Power, General Weakness, Dimness of Vision with peculiar spots appearing before the eyes, Loss of Sight, Wakefulness, Dyspepsia, Liver Diseases, Eruptions upon the Face, Pains in the Back and Head, Female Irregularities, and all improper discharges of both sexes. [illegible] the skin, eyes, throat and lungs, entailing upon them [illegible] existence of suffering, and [illegible] grave.

Self-abuse is another formidable enemy to health, for nothing else in the dread catalogue of human [illegible] so destructive a drain upon the system, drawing its thousands of victims through a few years of suffering down to an untimely grave. It destroys the nervous system, rapidly wastes away the energies of life, causes mental derangement, prevents the proper development of the system, disqualifies for marriage, society, business, and all earthly happiness, and leaves the sufferer wrecked in body and mind, predisposed to consumption and a train of evils more to be dreaded than death itself. With the fullest confidence I assure the unfortunate victims of self-abuse, that a permanent and speedy cure can be effected, and with the abandonment of ruinous practices, my patients can be restored to robust, vigorous health.

Irregularities, and all diseases of males and females, treated on principles established by fifteen years of practice and sanctioned by thousands of the most remarkable cures. Medicines, with full directions sent to any part of the State, Oregon and Washington Territory, by patients communicating their symptoms by letter.

All business correspondence strictly confidential. Address DR. L. J. CZAPKAY, Medical Institute, Sacramento street, below Montgomery, opposite Pacific Mail Steamship Co.'s Office, San Francisco.

Remarkable Instance of Medical Relief.

Below we publish the certificates of three of the sufferers from the pangs of disease, who, having recovered their former health and impelled by gratitude, [illegible] the causes and remedial agent, and their statements authenticated by a Notary Public. The [illegible] respectively command their publicity, and we [illegible] their perusal to the attention of all afflicted.

Certificate.—The undersigned, desirous of [illegible] those who may be unfortunate enough to be similarly afflicted, where a permanent relief of their sufferings may be obtained, feels it his duty to thus publicly express his sincere gratitude to Dr. L. J. Czapkay, for the [illegible] recovery of his health. Borne down by the [illegible] symptoms incident to the vicious practices of [illegible] the passion in youth, depressed in body and [illegible] to perform even the most trifling duty imposed upon the ordinary avocations of life, I sought the advice of [illegible] who at first regarded my disease as of [illegible] importance—but alas! after a few weeks, and [illegible] stances, months, of their treatment, I found, to my able horror, that instead of relief, my symptoms more alarming in their tortures and being told my disease being principally confined to the brain, would be of little consequence. I despaired of ever my health, strength, and energy; and as a [illegible] with but a faint hope called upon Dr. Czapkay, examining my case, prescribed some medicines, instantly relieved me of the dull pain and [illegible] head. Encouraged by the result, I resolved to [illegible] immediately under his care, and by a strict [illegible] his directions and advice, my head became [illegible] ideas collected, the constant pain in my back [illegible] weakness of my limbs, the nervous reaction of my body on the slightest alarm or excitement, [illegible] and evil forebodings, the self-distrust and want [illegible] in others, the incapability to study, and want [illegible] the frightful, exciting and at times pleasurable [illegible] night, followed by involuntary discharges, have all disappeared; and in fact, in two months, after having [illegible] the doctor, I felt as if inspired by a new life—[illegible] but a short time ago I contemplated to end my [illegible] hand. With the view to guard the unfortunate [illegible] into the snares of incompetent quacks, I deem [illegible] offer this testimony to the merit and skill of Dr. [illegible] and recommend him to all who may stand in need [illegible] cal advice, being assured by my own experience [illegible] under his care a radical and permanent cure [illegible]

Dr. L. J. Czapkay, San Francisco—Sir: I [illegible] last of your medicine, and do not think I [illegible] more, as I feel very well, except that I have [illegible] got my strength yet, but soon will with [illegible] It is just three weeks, you may recollect, [illegible] your institute with my constitution, as I [illegible] entirely, and never thought you would [illegible] perfectly, but thought you might be able to [illegible] to ease the pain in my back and head and [illegible] nerves, so that I would not get excited and [illegible] rything. Now that you know what [illegible] judge of my satisfaction at my complete [illegible] symptoms, and the removal of those sores and [illegible] my skin, and the ulcers from my throat, and [illegible] page of those emissions, which you said were [illegible] cause of my sickness. I can hardly tell you [illegible] greatest, my joy or my surprise, for [illegible] got my strength, I feel as well as any man [illegible]

Certificate.—Prompted by an honest desire [illegible] I wish to lay before the public a case which [illegible] mendation, not only as an act of scientific skill [illegible] humanity also. About two years ago, I suddenly [illegible] causes unknown to me, was seized with [illegible] which, owing to my inability to meet the [illegible] quent upon a thorough medical treatment, and the [illegible] agement which I met with on attempting [illegible] such (I was then led to believe) as to defy [illegible] physician. I was frequently, while in pursuit [illegible] thrown down to the ground without the slightest [illegible] and although insensible to the agonies [illegible] miseries of my life and soon learned to look [illegible] would render assistance or shelter me from [illegible] ones who sought to prolong the existence of my [illegible] While in this state, and having, previous to my [illegible] tested the sweets of life, I once more was induced [illegible] seeking aid of a physician, and, by recommendation [illegible] upon Dr. L. J. Czapkay. I told him of my [illegible] and of my inability to reward him for his services [illegible] of which, however, he at once undertook my case [illegible] the blessing of God, I was once more restored to [illegible] health. Unable to reward him for the boon which I [illegible] present, and yet conscious of my indebtedness, I [illegible] due to myself and all afflicted, to make the case [illegible] order that those in need of medical advice may find [illegible] man in whom every confidence can be placed.
